Prevention includes education, economic empowerment and collaboration with government and non-government entities. Intervention is focused on hard rescue, whereby children are rescued from child sex trafficking, and perpetrators are put behind bars for as long as possible. Aftercare is holistic and Shield does not currently operate anywhere that doesn't have sufficient aftercare to see these survivors through until the point where they can reintegrate into society. Long-term, Shield intends to establish organic aftercare in a remote part of South-East Asia in partnership with other aftercare subject matter experts.

Grant	J893N Pygmy Child Care The Situation Pygmies, Bambuti, of the Eastern Democratic Republic of Congo are among the most disadvantaged peoples in the world. They were always considered less than human and often enslaved by other tribes. Driven out of their traditional forest homes in the conflict which continues to ravage the region, they are now destitute, reduced to begging to survive, and vulnerable to every form of exploitation and abuse. In 2010 a group of local Congolese and an Australian volunteer, Barbara Ferguson PhD OAM, formed an alliance to help a group of 170 displaced Pygmy people. With financial assistance and professional help, they have secured land and set up their own village in a relatively safe place. However, their capacity to feed, provide medical care and education for their children remains limited. GDG project 'J893N Pygmy Child Care' has been established in a substantial walled building in the village in response to the local community's request. Each weekday, 1

Region Grant	Central America and the Caribbean J1159N - Capital on the Edge, Nicaragua seeks to create a bright future for Nicaraguan youth by offering them opportunities to learn and showcase their hope, culture and talents. This project is meeting immediate needs by feeding, clothing and educating young Nicaraguans. We're also providing hope by refocusing Nicaraguan youths' attention on healthy lifestyle choices, such as dance and gymnastics. The young people in our project travel to other parts of Nicaragua, and even the world, to share their hope, culture and talents with people in other places. We are incorporating entrepreneurial training opportunities into our program (selling clothing), so that the boys learn to manage a business, and get real life practical sales experience. In the future we seek to build Nicaragua's first gymnasium and a dance studio, so that everybody has access to a training facility for the interests they love.	12,830

It is commonly held that life for street children is dirty, violent, and short. Hungry, abused, and alone, they quickly become addicted to drugs in order to deal with their suffering, and become conscripted into gangs that make them criminals. Grant	J935N-The history of the community where J935N Transforming Cambodia works has its origins in the backstreets of Cambodia's capital, Phnom Penh, in 2006 when a village of 1,000 families were forcibly evicted from their inner-city homes and dumped in a wetland on the outskirts of the city. With little more than the clothes on their backs and a plastic sheet for shelter, these families lost access to all the necessities in life and there was little hope for the future in their new community called Andong village. Our in-country partner Development for the People of Cambodia (DPC) rallied alongside the villagers and set about meeting their immediate needs like food, shelter, and clean drinking water. One of DPC's first initiatives was to construct a modest primary school and provide a free education and meals to the village children, the first in their families to ever set foot in a classroom. From humble J935N Transforming Cambodia project beginnings of just a handful of students, the in J939N - Kingdom Son's Academy, Kenya - Kenya is a country in East Africa with a population of nearly 40 million people made up of over 40 different tribes and people groups. On the Human Development Index, Kenya rates 128 out of 167 which puts it in the lowest category. In 1999, the Government of Kenya drafted a National Poverty Eradication Plan (NPEP) in order to tackle the growing and widespread rate of poverty in the country. This plan was in conjunction with the International Development Goals and sought to address the accessibility of education, amongst other pressing issues that exacerbated poverty. Providing accessible education to a child can have the power to break the generational cycle of poverty in a family. Kingdomsons Academy seeks to address the need for secondary school education in the region of Kipkaren River, Kenya as presently the school only offers until Year 8.
